Fly & Explore SFO Museum's Video Arts Program

SFO Museum is celebrating the six-month mark of operating the Video Arts screening room at the San Francisco International Airport (SFO). The program features a rotating exhibition of four short films with a new film introduced weekly, providing visibility to a wide range of contemporary artists and filmmakers from around the world. The current program includes work by animator Dave Kiehl; multimedia artist Marco Brambilla; documentary filmmakers Robert Hall and Nol Honig; and student filmmakers Beth David and Esteban Bravo, whose animated thesis film In a Heartbeat has been nominated for Best Animated Short Film at this year's Academy Awards. The films are on view to all Airport visitors daily from 5:00am to Midnight. There is no charge to visit the screening room.

Located prior to security screening at rear of International Terminal Main Hall Departures Lobby.

Who Knew?

Did you know that March is Women's History Month, a designation first passed by Congress in 1987? To commemorate this, on March 28, 1988, just the second official Women's History Month, an all-female Air Force flight crew flew a Lockheed C-5 Galaxy across the Atlantic Ocean to commemorate the month.
